Ashley Dittmar

Ashley is a Certified Trainer in Crucial Conversations Training, where she has shown outstanding skill and knowledge to deliver and engage participants in this course.

Ashley is consistently recognized for her enthusiastic approach and passion for the subject matter in Crucial Conversations, and her ability to inspire personal change with participants delivers powerful results for organizations.

Operating on her personal philosophy that one person can make a difference in any organization; Ashley helps employees develop the skills to handle communication in the face of high stakes, opposing opinions, heated emotions, and interpersonal conflict.

Ashley understands the importance of keeping the momentum going “after” the training, and offers Crucial Conversations refresher sessions, coaching and post-workshop support.
